George:
The attached is the draft of your course report and also some comments on it. Besides my own review, I asked assistant, to read it. We think it is all-inclusive and a very good summing up of your pilot course. A lot of the technical terms are difficult for the layman to understand, of course, but shouldn't present too much of a problem, unless you want to include a short glossary. Thanks for showing it to us and we'll look forward to getting a final copy.
